

STRATEGIC GOALS

Direction One

Promoting Excellence
in Teaching and Learning

Direction Two

Enriching and Broadening the Student Experience

Direction Three

Responding to Enrollment,
Community and
Workforce Needs

Direction Four

Building Upon
Human Capital

Direction Five

Enhancing our Physical Environment

Direction Six

Responding to Fiscal Challenges

Direction Seven

Enhancing the Learning
Environment through Technology

The Diversity Council

and

Direction Five: Enhancing our Physical Environment Committee

invite the college community to Meet “Maya”

A Celebration of Diversity and Inclusiveness

Tuesday, September 29

3:30 to 4:30 pm

Java’s Coffee Bar

(on the first floor of the Spina Administration Bldg.)

with special guest

Board Chair Emerita Alice Holloway Young, Ed.D.

on the day of her 86th birthday!

RSVP to Mary O’Reilly at 292-2109

Be part of a historic event at Monroe Community College with the unveiling and dedication of “Maya,” a selected piece, created by local artist Cheryl Olney, to promote diversity and inclusiveness throughout MCC and highlight the success of the Alice Holloway Young, Ed.D. Power of Diversity Series.