

The Academic Foundations Division in partnership with the Office of Student Life
& Leadership Development announces:

The

2014 Alan B. Shaw Memorial Essay Award

$150 Cash Prize

Essay Topic:

My Best Friend

In memory of English/Philosophy Professor, Alan B. Shaw (1942-2002), the Writing Center is pleased to host an essay award to honor Professor Shaw's commitment to writing, passion for teaching, and dedication to MCC students.

Essays will be judged on creativity, richness of ideas, and affective use of Standard English.

Who: Any currently enrolled student at MCC may enter the contest.

When: Essays will be accepted until 12:00 p.m. on Friday, April 11, 2014.
The winner will be announced by April 25, 2014.

Where: Essays may be delivered to the Writing Center:
Brighton Campus: Room 11-208
Damon City Campus: ESOL/TRS Mastery Lab Room 4-262

Guidelines:

- ◆ All submissions must be typed, double spaced, stapled, and free of grammatical and mechanical errors
- ◆ All submissions must include a title page containing the author's name, M number, home address, phone number and title of essay
- ◆ Essays must be original and previously unpublished
- ◆ Essays should not exceed 2,000 words
- ◆ The winner will be honored at a special award ceremony at a date and time to be announced

Questions?

Brighton campus, contact Jean McDonough at 292-3360 or jmcdonough@monroecc.edu;
Damon City campus, contact Sandy Chamberlain at 262-1556 or schamberlain@monroecc.edu.