

The Nazis were ordered to destroy every personal photograph brought by deportees to the concentration camps. At great risk, 2,400 pre-war photographs were hidden in a locked room in Auschwitz-Birkenau in 1943 where they escaped destruction. That's where Ann Weiss, a daughter of two survivors, found them 43 years later and began her journey to identify each and every one.

"Life from the Ashes: An Inside View"

featuring Ann Weiss,
a former Rochesterian and author of "The Last Album: Eyes from the Ashes of Auschwitz-Birkenau"

Wednesday, March 22, 2006 at 7 pm
R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center Forum (3-130)

In honor of the 100th anniversary of Susan B. Anthony's death.

Parking available in Lots M and N. Free and open to the public.
The presentation will be followed by a book signing. Call 585.292.3321 for more information.

Sponsored by the Holocaust Genocide Studies Project and the Campus Activities Board

MCC