

MCC's 6th Annual
Voices of Vigilance Program
Congolese Genocide Survivor

Rose Mapendo

Wednesday, March 14, 2012

Peace and Reconciliation

Hear how, after escaping from a Congolese death camp in 1998, Rose Mapendo engages a global community to accept peace and reconciliation.

Damon City Campus
Noon

Room 4151

Free; not open to the public.

Overcoming Overwhelming Obstacles

Mapendo's harrowing story has been chronicled in the 2010 documentary film Pushing the Elephant, and she was named the United Nations Humanitarian of the Year in 2009 for her ongoing efforts to support African refugees. Her exceptional story of survival and her heartfelt message continue to inspire audiences worldwide.

Brighton Campus
Warshof Conference Center,
Flynn Campus Center (Monroe A & B)
7:00pm
Free for MCC Students, Faculty and Staff
$10.00 General Public
Parking available in Lots M & N

Tickets are required and available online at: www.monroecctickets.com, the Brighton Campus Service Desk and the Damon City Campus Bookstore.

Sponsored by the Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Project.
Brought to you by your Student Life Fee

