

2012 Model UN Program & Simulation

Conference April 2nd to April 8th in New York City

Program/class begins in the spring (2012). To qualify and be selected into the program you must have your application submitted this semester (2011), by Friday, October 14, 2011.

Students earn 4 credit hours gaining both academic and co-curricular credit. This course will go on your academic and life skills transcript

Students you'll receive Honors Credit regardless if you are in a Honors Program or not

Students travel to the National Collegiate Conference in New York City for one week. This is the largest conference in the North East with over 5,000 students from all over the world

Want More Information?

- Brochures and applications are available in the Office of Student Life & Leadership Development
- Visit our website www.monroecc.edu/mun
- Make an appointment to see a professional in the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development by calling 292-2534

Office of Student Life & Leadership Development
We'll help you shine!