

Hispanic Heritage Month Presents

The Argentine Tango

with

Agustin "Gus" Ramos and Deborah Anthony

Learn the art of the dance!

"Argentine tango-four legs, two heads, one heart.

Tango is more than one can say in words. How you dance comes from who you are.

The more you dance, the more you find out about yourself, and others."

Listening to tango all his life, Agustin "Gus" Ramos has found his true calling to dance the tango. For the past 14 years, he has studied with numerous instructors from Argentina including his teachers, Claudio Asprea and Agustina Videla. He has taught locally for the past eight years, both group classes and private lessons. A musician in his own right, Gus brings a deep understanding of the music of tango and its passion, making his approach to the dance one of self-expression and artistry. Assisting in the class is Deborah Anthony, Gus's student for the past two years. Known for her joyous attitude and her solid technique, Deborah brings extensive experience in social dancing to her exploration and love of tango.
