

UNDERSTANDING THE RIGHTS OF TRANSGENDER STUDENTS

Monday, March 27, 2017

12:00 p.m. -1:00 p.m. in the Prism Multicultural Center, Building 1 Room 108

Presented and facilitated by: Kristin Lowe, Assistant to the President for Title IX & Inclusion and Bethany Gizzi, Professor of Sociology, Certified Safe Zone Trainer & Advisor to the Pride Alliance Club

Please join us for an open discussion about the rights of transgender students on campus and in educational settings in the U.S. The presenters will share information about the recent reversal of federal guidelines protecting transgender students, the status of transgender students' rights at MCC, and available resources for LGBTQ students. An open forum discussion will follow the presentation, so please come prepared to ask questions and engage in a respectful dialogue.

Faculty if you are bringing your class, please R.S.V.P. to Sprovost@monroecc.edu or call the PRISM Multicultural Center at 292-3641

