

Prevent Child Abuse New York

IS PROUD TO SPONSOR

Speak Out Rochester!

A day long event dedicated to “speaking out” against all forms of childhood abuse, incest, and domestic violence.
(emotional, physical, sexual, spiritual)

CALL FOR WORK**

Writers/Poets
Dancers

Actors
Musicians

Artists
Artistic Creations

All are invited to speak out against abuse through poetry, prose, drama, dance, music and personal testimony. Artists whose work was created as an expression of their healing/recovery can display and/or sell those materials. (see contact information below)

If you are a survivor, or an advocate against abuse, please consider joining us for this year’s free community wide event.

Why: Because speaking out can break the cycle of secretiveness, unravel misconceptions about abuse, celebrate growth and healing, and empower change.

When: Saturday July 29th, 2006, at 10:00 am

Where: R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center
Monroe Community College
Parking Lots M or N

Contact: Maggie Watson, mwatsonny@hotmail.com (585)544-0019

*This educational and artistic event is funded on a strictly volunteer basis.
