SPEAK TO SEGA

MCC Foundation – The Foundation needs two female volunteers to assist with their Gold Star Gala on April 28, 5:30-9:30 p.m.
The event will raise money for student scholarships.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Club/Organization Awards Applications – Award categories are fundraising, community service, collaborative programming, educational programming, program of the year, club and organization of the year. The application deadline is April 6.

Elections – Everyone's assistance is needed in promoting the elections.

Upcoming Events – Activities planned for Family Fun Night on April 20 and Spring Fling on May 7 were described and approved of.

NEW BUSINESS

Past Events – Open Forum with President Kress on March 7, Election Workshops on March 12 and 13, and St. Patrick's Day Celebration on March 14 were reviewed.

Lab Hours – SEGA has received concerns from students that there are not enough hours offered in the ELC/ILC.

Catch The Buzz – The annual student/faculty/staff spelling bee is April 18, 3:30-5:30 p.m. in the Brighton Campus Theater.

DCC Semester Parking – The Campus Center Office is now handling semester parking keycards as well as MCC students' concerns regarding St. Joseph's Garage.

ADVISORS' REPORTS

Dr. Kenneth Humphrey – Ms. Jones and Ms. Velazquez were well prepared and did an excellent job of representing MCC students at the ASACC Conference.

The meeting adjourned at 1:15 p.m.
