

The Writing Center in collaboration with the Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) committee

Presents:

“How to Succeed in a Writing-Intensive (WR) Course”

Communication skills, especially writing are absolutely necessary for any successful career. Join us for a workshop that will explore ways to use both formal and informal writing in a variety of MCC courses designated Writing-Intensive (WR). Discover what kind of assignments you will encounter and what kind of writing strategies will be most effective in your discipline.

Wednesday, April 8, 2015

12 noon (college hour)

Bldg. 11 Room 203

Presenters:

Jason Alexander, Chemistry & Geosciences

Karen Wells, Mathematics

Mark Sample, Anthropology, History, Political Science, Sociology

Mark Ricci, Visual & Performing Arts

Sponsored by Academic Support Services department and the WAC committee. Questions or concerns? Please contact: Jean McDonough, 292-3360.