

THE SOCIOLOGY FILM SERIES AT DCC
AND THE LEARNING COMMUNITY
"WRITING SOCIETY" PRESENT A VERY SPECIAL FILM EVENT

AMERICAN BEAUTY

(1999)

Directed by Sam Mendes and starring
Kevin Spacey and Annette Bening

Plot synopsis: "Lester's life is perfect. He has the perfect house, the perfect wife, the perfect job—he even has the perfect table settings. The only problem is that he's miserable (and so is almost everyone else in this suburban hell). Inspired by sex, beauty, and power, Lester, and the rest of his family, navigate the glittering lies of the American Dream to reclaim their lives from perfection."
(written by Tony Vinci, ENG/PHL)

WHEN: Wednesday, November 14, 2007
TIME: 3:00pm (view film with discussion to follow)
WHERE: Room #4151, Damon City Campus
MODERATOR: Professor Tony Vinci, ENG/PHL

This film series event is required for all students in the Learning Community of ENG 101.C13 and SOC 101.C13.

It is also free to any MCC students, guests and the public. It is R-rated, so no children under age 17 are allowed to attend. Faculty, please encourage student attendance! Direct any questions to Christine Plumeri, Sociology, x1768 or cplumeri@monroecc.edu.