

In recognition of the 10th Anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks

THE DIVERSITY & COMMUNITY STUDIES
FILM SERIES AT DCC
PRESENTS A SPECIAL
LEARNING EXPERIENCE:

I KNOW I'M NOT ALONE:
A MUSICIAN'S JOURNEY
THROUGH WAR IN THE MIDDLE EAST (2005)

DIRECTED BY MICHAEL FRANTI

“Michael Franti, world-renowned musician and human rights worker, travels to Iraq, Palestine and Israel to explore the human cost of war with a group of friends, some video cameras and his guitar. A compelling soundtrack, visual and musical montages and Franti’s intimate voiceovers make the film speak to the MTV, X, Y & Z generations, as well as the baby-boomers. A true armchair travel film pulling the audience into these war zones in the company of Michael’s guitar, eloquence and wit – you feel the humanity, artistic resilience and sometimes horrific experience of what it’s like to live under the bombs and military occupation.” (taken from www.iknowimnotalone.com)
