

Celebrate International Education Week at MCC!

MONDAY NOVEMBER 17th

International Education Week Kick Off and Flags of the Nations Parade
11:50 a.m. – 12:05 p.m. / The Terrace, upstairs in the Campus Center

Celebrate the newly established office of Global Education and International Services as we open International Education Week! Enjoy the Parade of Flags of the Nations as we gather to hear President Kress kick-off our week of events.

HAWA Movie Screening

12:10 p.m. – 1:00 p.m./ The Forum Building 3-130

MCC alum, Arzouma Aime Kompaore, will share with us the film he wrote, directed and produced: HAWA. This 29 minute short is a drama about an African couple who immigrated to the U.S. Expand your perspective on the immigrant experience as you watch this film and engage with the filmmaker.

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 18th

Global Fair

11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m / The Terrace, upstairs in the Campus Center

Travel the world locally by stopping by our first annual Global Fair where we will highlight on-location courses, student clubs and organizations, and community service opportunities that offer students the chance to learn about other cultures. Get involved in a global way through local opportunities!

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 19th - Day Program

Uniting and Dividing: How Religion and Politics are Affecting Events in the Middle East

12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m./ Building 5, Room 300

Dr. Muhammad Shafiq, executive director of the Brian and Jean Hickey Center for Interfaith Studies and Dialogue at Nazareth College and professor of Islamic and religious studies, will offer our community a Muslim perspective on current events in the Middle East.

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 19th – Evening Program

The Act of Killing Film Viewing & Discussion
Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Project
6pm: Flynn Campus Center Forum

Discussion facilitated by Philosophy Professor Matthew Hachee

The Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Project is MCC's unique organization for telling the stories of the Holocaust and other genocides while transforming individuals to become advocates for human rights.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 20th

12:30 – 1:30 p.m./ The Forum Building 3-130

Picture Yourself in Iceland!

MCC faculty Jasna Bogdanovska and Louis Silvers have been mesmerized by the stunning natural beauty of Iceland, the long days of summer sunshine and the unlimited options for photography and enjoying nature. Join their presentation and learn how you can study on-location in Iceland!

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 21st

12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

FACULTY PROGRAM

How in the World Can I Internationalize My Curriculum?!

Building 8, Rm 200

AHPS Chair and Sociology Professor Susan Belair and Cross Cultural Counselor Don Beech invite you to this “bento box lunch” (a.k.a. brown bag lunch) workshop on ways to internationalize your classes. They help you identify the ways you already have some global learning outcomes in your curriculum and offer ideas on how to infuse those global competencies most helpful for students.

12:00- 1:00 p.m.

STUDENT PROGRAM

Go global in your future!

Career and Transfer Center library/ Building 3 Rm 108

Do you want to be marketable to future employers? Would you like to learn how to internationalize your resume? Join this session to learn what global options are available to you that will help you have the cross cultural skills employers want. Pam Lazio, Career Counselor, will give you tips to sharpen your resume while Professor Kara Tierney will share her story of joining the Peace Corps.

Damon City Campus Event

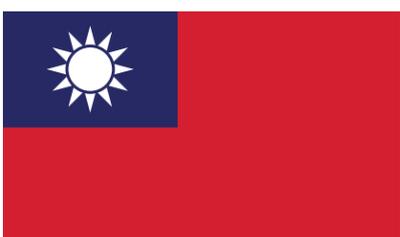

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 19th

HAWA movie screening

12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Damon City Campus- 4th Floor Lounge

MCC alum, Arzouma Aime Kompaore, will share with us the film he wrote, directed and produced: HAWA. This 29 minute short is a drama about an African couple who immigrated to the U.S. Expand your perspective on the immigrant experience as you watch this film and engage with the filmmaker.

Monroe Community College

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK