SCHOOL OF ARTS & HUMANITIES

Cinema and Screen Studies A.S.

GET HALFWAY TOWARD A BACHELOR'S DEGREE IN FILM, MEDIA OR A RELATED FIELD. In this unique program, you'll explore the history and artistry of moving images while learning about the business aspects of video and film. You'll work with accomplished faculty who've spent years in the industry. The program gives you the opportunity to write original scripts and learn introductory production techniques. And you can apply your credits toward a bachelor's degree in film, media, communications, or a related field.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

MCC's Cinema and Screen Studies A.S. program introduces cinema as a medium of mass communication that combines two art forms (photography and theater) to convey powerful stories with vivid pictures and strong emotion. You'll evaluate and critique films from many different cultures and genres and develop strong writing, research, and analytical skills. The degree includes courses in scriptwriting, production, editing and digital effects. Graduates have an excellent record of transferring to four-year degree programs.

A STRONG START—ACADEMICALLY AND FINANCIALLY!

MCC's low tuition plus financial aid opportunities help make a high-quality education affordable. You could qualify for federal grants, workforce grants, scholarships, and more. Visit www.monroecc.edu/go/financial or call 585.292.2050.
