MCC graduates are ready to begin careers in growing fields, such as solar thermal technology. The vast majority of our graduates stay in our region and contribute to its success.
Monroe Community College (MCC) has opened doors of opportunity for more than half a million students since fall 1962. Carrying on the vision of our founders 60 years ago and inspiring the way forward under the current leadership of MCC President Dr. DeAnna R. Burt-Nanna, MCC continues evolving to meet the ever-changing needs of our students and our community. Using our Vision2027 Strategic Plan as a guide, MCC enhances the quality of life and economic vitality of the region.

OUR MISSION
MCC transforms lives and communities, fostering the success of diverse students through affordable and innovative academic, career, technical, and workforce development programs. Our shared work inspires and champions excellence in higher education and builds global engagement and understanding.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION
MCC expects and upholds equity, inclusion, and a sense of belonging in our educational programs, policies, campus life, employment, and community involvement. We believe that diversity enriches our lives and leads to understanding and appreciation of our differences and commonalities. In order to achieve academic and institutional excellence, we actively recruit, engage, and retain students, faculty, staff and community partners who represent the diversity of our region, nation, and world.

OUR UNIQUE LABS AND SPACES

Hospitality management and culinary arts students operate a full-service restaurant, Food For Thought (shown at right), on the Brighton Campus specializing in homemade, local food. All food is prepared, cooked and served by students in the restaurant and for special on-campus events.

Interfaith prayer and contemplation rooms are open anytime to MCC students, faculty and staff. Located in Room 6-143 on the Brighton Campus and in the Wellness Promotion Suite on the Downtown Campus, the space supports the holistic wellness of individuals of all religious faiths and nonreligious beliefs.
Since its inception in 1962, MCC's athletics program has developed a rich, storied tradition of success as a member of the National Junior College Athletic Association. Throughout the years, the program has also produced many scholars and leaders.
INSPIRING THE WAY FORWARD

The Finger Lakes Workforce Development Center within MCC’s Downtown Campus offers increased opportunities for diverse residents of the Finger Lakes region to access technology-oriented, industry-driven education and training for high-demand careers in a 21st-century economy. Fast-track programs enable individuals of all ages to earn microcredentials and progress toward an associate degree. fwd-center.com/

MCC is helping raise completion rates for single-mother learners by 30% by 2024. As one of the top online providers in the SUNY system, MCC responds to the needs of many student-parents who prefer online courses and remote access to services to better balance school and family/work responsibilities. MCC served more than 1,420 student-parents in fall 2022.
ECONOMIC & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Led by its Economic and Workforce Development Center’s efforts, MCC uses labor market intelligence to shape its educational and training programs and develop solutions to employers’ current and emerging workforce needs. The center’s reports provide data-driven analyses of local workforce dynamics. Find the reports online at workforceforward.com/reports.

NOTABLE TRIBUNES

Todd Baxter ’10
Monroe County Sheriff’s Office

Todd Baxter always seeks opportunities to make the community a better place. After serving in the Army right out of high school, he returned to Rochester to begin his civilian career. After completing courses at MCC, he was hired by the Rochester Police Department – the start of a law enforcement career spanning 35 years.

An opportunity to bring about positive change for military veterans eventually led him to the Veterans Outreach Center, where as executive director he oversaw efforts to open a home for female veterans in need. Currently the Monroe County Sheriff, he is recipient of multiple awards recognizing his contributions to the community and country, including inspiring future first responders as an instructor. Todd holds an associate degree in criminal justice from MCC as well as bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Roberts Wesleyan University.
