FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Applicants for Automotive Training Apprentice Program at Monroe Community College

If you are uncertain of how many points have been accumulated on your NYS Driver's License, please contact the NYS Department of Motor Vehicles to order a Driver Abstract of your driving record. If applying from any other state please contact that state's Department of Motor Vehicles and request a comparable document.

A Notary Public is an officer who can administer and give oaths, take affidavits and depositions, and perform certain other acts under authority given to them by the State of New York. If you are looking to find a Notary Public, check with nearby financial institutions, law offices, and county/town municipal offices.
