Part I – To be completed by student.

1. Are you in default on a federal student loan and/or have a federal grant overpayment?

NO – You are eligible for federal student aid. Please sign below and return to the Financial Aid Office.

YES – Proceed to question 2.

2. Did the default or overpayment occur before you filed for bankruptcy?

NO – You are eligible for federal student aid. Please sign below and return to the Financial Aid Office.

YES – You are NOT eligible to receive federal financial aid. You may regain eligibility if your loan is discharge in bankruptcy or your default status is cleared and/or the overpayment is repaid. You should submit documentation of this when it occurs. We will then re-evaluate your eligibility for financial aid.

I certify that the above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
