

By leaving your suite/room door open and unattended, you could have had your property stolen. Help the Res Life staff and Public Safety protect your personal property by participating in:

PROJECT ID

Public Safety Community Policing Officers will assist you in marking and engraving your personal property with a unique personal identifier. This number will assist law enforcement agencies nationwide to trace property back to its legitimate owner in the event it is lost or stolen.