Preamble

We, the Student Body of Monroe Community College Brighton Campus and Applied Technologies Center, in order to form a more perfect means by which our voices can be heard; to promote a holistic institutional environment of freedom, learning, inclusion, self-discovery, and happiness; and to ensure, to the fullest extent, a system of self-governance; do ordain, and establish this Constitution of the Monroe Community College Student Government Association.

Article I
Membership and Privileges

1.1 Name
The organization shall be known as the Monroe Community College Student Government Association, also referred to as SGA.

1.2 Mission and Purpose
The SGA shall be the governing body of all students attending Monroe Community College Brighton Campus and the Applied Technology Center. It shall promote and implement the objectives set forth in the Preamble of its Constitution. The SGA shall join the Student Body with the faculty, staff, and administration of Monroe Community College, in bettering the College Community. As representatives of the Student Body, the SGA shall have the power to render decisions on its behalf in matters pertaining to Monroe Community College. The SGA shall ensure, to the absolute extent, the preservation and protection of the Rights of the Students under its jurisdiction.

1.3 Membership
A. All students currently enrolled at Monroe Community College who pay a student life fee shall be considered members of the Student Association. The Student Association is governed by the Student Government Association (Brighton Campus/Applied Technologies Center) and the Student Events and Governance Association (Downtown).
B. The Brighton Campus SGA represents all students at the Brighton Campus and the Applied Technologies Center (ATC).
C. Primary governing representation will be determined by the campus where the majority of credits are taken.
D. All members of the Brighton Campus and Applied Technologies Center share equally in the rights of the SGA, which shall include the right to:

   d. Request assistance from the SGA regarding concerns that affect students at the college.
e. Submit a written complaint about the SGA to the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development (OSLLD).

1.4 Fees
At the pleasure of the Student Body, and thereby, its Student Government: The MCC Association Inc. Board of Directors shall determine Student Life Fees, as well as the benefits to be derived from stated fees. The SGA Senate will render its official opinion upon the amount of the Student Life Fees charged, as well as the use of any funds thereof. Should the name of the Student Life Fee be changed at any time, this Constitution may be updated to reflect such a change, and no other, without formal amendment.

Article II
Policies and Procedures

2.1 Oath of Office
Before entering the duties of an office, each person elected or selected must recite the following oath that shall be administered by the SGA Advisor.

The Required Oath of Office
I, state your name, do solemnly affirm that I will support, obey, and defend the rules and regulations of the Constitution of the Student Government Association of Monroe Community College. I further affirm that I have read and understand the duties and roles of my office and accept its responsibilities. I will faithfully execute my duties and fulfill my obligation to the best of my abilities while contributing to the enhancement of the experience of the students at Monroe Community College.

2.2 Policies
A. SGA will adhere to all of Monroe Community College's and the MCC Association’s code of conduct and policies and procedures under the guidance of the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development.

Article VII

Absences, Impeachment, and Removal

8.1 Absences

A. It is expected that all members will be present at all required SGA functions (required meetings, committee meetings, trainings, etc.). If a member must miss a required function, he/she must provide a valid reason, in writing, to the Executive Board who will determine if the absence is excused or unexcused. Members of the SGA may have up to two excused absences per semester during his/her term of office. If a member has more than three absences, the Executive Board will determine the appropriate sanction.

B. If a member has more than two unexcused absences from required obligations, then the SGA member is subject to be placed on probation. Within the designated timeframe will result in removal from SGA. No exceptions will be made.

C. Probation shall consist of the following:
   a. Loss of voting rights.
   b. Loss of speaking privileges at SGA meetings.
   c. Required weekly check-ins with the Executive Board and an SGA Advisor.
   d. Further absences from required SGA functions will result in immediate removal from office.

D. This probationary period will end when the Executive Board votes to lift the probation.

8.2 Grounds

Grounds for impeachment shall be negligence of duty or any action performed by the any branch or member of the SGA, which is considered a direct violation of the Constitution or By-Laws; or any action performed as a member of the SGA which is considered detrimental to the good name of the Student Association.

8.3 Procedure
A. Any member of the SGA is subject to impeachment upon the receipt of a complaint signed by a majority of Senators, present and voting, at a meeting of the Senate, or upon filing of a petition signed by 150 members of the Brighton/ATC Campus Student Association.
B. A hearing by the Executive and Legislative branches must be held within one week from the filing of charges, unless the defendant cannot be notified in accordance with his/her rights, in which case a hearing must be held as soon as such rights have been satisfied.
C. All hearings for impeachment procedures will be open to the Student Association, and occur at the Meeting of the Senate. The defendant and the prosecutor shall be given equal lengths of time to present their case to the Executive and Legislative branches.
D. Both branches shall vote by secret ballot; the results shall be read immediately by the Vice President of Governance, whom shall not vote.
E. If at the end of the impeachment proceedings the defendant is found guilty by a two/thirds vote of the Executive and Legislative branches, present and voting, he/she shall be removed from office. Once the vote takes place, the decision is considered final.
F. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to remove from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor under the Student Association.

8.4 Conflicts of Interest
The presiding officer shall not be the defendant or the prosecutor. In the event of a conflict, a presiding officer shall be appointed by a two-thirds majority vote of the Senate. Neither the defendant nor the prosecutor may vote in the hearing.

Article VIII
Amendments

Any member of SGA may propose any amendment to the Constitution to the Senate. Any proposed amendment to the Constitution must be in order and purposeful by a majority vote of those present and voting at the Senate meeting in order to be presented in the form of a referendum to the student body. The referendum must then be approved by the majority of the members of the student body present and voting, for the referendum to amend the Constitution.
