

By-Laws for the Student Government Association (SGA), deemed by SGA to be consistent with the Constitution, may be adopted by a majority vote of the SGA Senate, present and voting.

Article 1: Charting a Club/Organization

Policies and Procedures

The Senate must charter all student clubs and organizations that seek recognition and meet all requirements for chartering set by the Senate and these By-Laws. The Senate will consider any and all documents relevant to chartering before voting on said charter. Supporting documents include but are not limited to the club's Constitution, the recommendation of the Director of the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development or designee, any additional documents that the club or organization wishes to have considered in favor of granting charter, and any other supporting material the Senate may deem necessary. No proposed club or organization will be formally recognized as such until the Senate has approved their petition for charter.

Formation of a Club/Organization

A group of students with a common interest may pursue recognition from the SGA. Recognition will be granted by the Senate. Students desiring to form a student club or organization must meet these minimum requirements:

- Present a proposed constitution which includes a statement of purpose, plans for operations, and whose mission does not resemble a currently chartered club or organization at the Brighton Campus.
- A faculty/staff member who has agreed to act as the club's advisor.
  - If no advisor can be found and all other criteria for chartering have been met, a written certification that the club has attempted to secure an advisor, but has yet to locate a suitable choice agreeable to the club or organization, shall be acceptable for the purposes of meeting this requirement for chartering. This certification must be signed by the club's or organization's officers and the Director of the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development or designee.
- A signed list of tentative officers and an outline of projected activities.
- Meet with a staff member in the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development to review completed materials. Once materials are complete, the constitution will be given to the SGA Constitution Committee for review. This constitution may not implicitly or explicitly violate the SGA Constitution.
- In the case of official organization charters, all aforementioned criteria must be met in addition to providing verification to SGA of state/national/international organizational affiliation and/or provide a continuous service(s) to the community of Monroe Community College.
  - The operations of the organization are unique and critical to the mission of a University department or the needs of the student body, as deemed by the Senate, that if they were to no longer exist, the loss of programs or services would create a significant negative impact on the campus community.

Going Before the Senate for Approval

- The Club Senator will contact the President of the Club with a date the constitution will be up for approval.
- Members of the club or organization and/or an advisor for the club or organization should be present to respond to questions when the Senate meeting.
  - In extreme circumstances, if no member or advisor is able to appear at the Senate meeting, the Club Senator may act as spokesperson.
- The club or organization must provide any information deemed relevant to chartering by the Senate.

- Once SGA approves the constitution, the club is chartered and then must begin the registration process.

Amendments to an Existing Constitution

Any club or organization desiring any changes or amendments to their constitution must apply to the Senate through the Director of the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development.

These minimum requirements must be met:

- The revised constitution must be updated by the club or organization to contain all current policies deemed necessary by the Senate.
  - A list of current officers.
- A. Then the amended constitution is given to the constitution committee for review. The constitution committee has 1 week to make recommendations before the amended constitution is placed on the agenda for a vote.
  - B. Once the constitution is placed on the agenda for vote, the club/organization must send a representative to the public meeting to present the constitution and answer questions.
  - C. If the amended constitution is passed, the club/organization must then make their amended constitution public.

Club Registration Process and Record Keeping

Each club and organization must complete the registration process every semester.

- Review their constitution
- Make any amendments (following the process)
- List of officers
- List of members
  - A duplicate list of officers, faculty/staff advisor, and constitution must be maintained within the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development and be updated whenever there is a change.

Inactive Clubs/De-Charting

- A. Any chartered club or organization, which has been inactive for three or more semesters, may have their charter revoked. Any club or organization wishing to be reactivated must fulfill the requirements above. (see the chartering process).
  1. In the case of de-chartering a club, a notice will be published in the Monroe Doctrine for a minimum of 2 weeks prior to revocation of the club's charter.
- B. The Senate shall also reserve the right to dissolve a recognized club/organization of the SGA. The Senate may also issue sanctions to any recognized club/organization found to be in violation of SGA or College policies.
- C. The Senate shall have the power to review, approve and amend constitutions of SGA recognized clubs/organizations, to ensure compliance with the SGA Constitution.

Club/Organization Policies and Procedures

- A. Clubs wishing to access funds for programs and travel complete the SGA Contingency Request form and follow the process of requesting funds.
- B. Club funds must be used to promote social, educational, and/or cultural functions open to all members of the SGA. These functions should relate in a meaningful way to the mission statement of each group.
- C. Clubs and organizations shall not engage in actions which are contrary to the mission and goals of Monroe Community College. Questionable actions, to include violations of College or SGA policy, shall be discussed by the Senate, which shall have the right to discipline groups for said actions.

- D. One member of each club/organization, or his or her designee, shall serve as a member of the Club Council and attend every meeting. These Club Council meetings will take place every third Tuesday of the month from 4:00-5:00 during the academic year.
- E. Club officers shall be elected by the club members.
- F. Recognized clubs and organizations must keep a current copy of their constitution on file with the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development.
- G. Clubs must know and follow the College's Club/Organization Policy & Procedures Manual found online or in the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development. Clubs/organizations who fail to adhere to these policies may risk losing recognition from the College as determined by the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development.
- H. Recognized organizations must have a faculty or staff advisor whose name is on file with the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development.
- I. Clubs/organizations must fulfill all the responsibilities in this constitution and in their own constitution.
