

In 1994, Paul Rusesabagina (pictured at left) used his charm and sales skills to save 1,268 lives during the Rwandan genocide. Under his leadership, the Hotel des Mille Collines became the only public place where people were safe. Paul's story has been told in the film Hotel Rwanda and his autobiography An Ordinary Man. In March, he will share his story at Monroe Community College.

Join the Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Project for its 12th annual Voices of Vigilance Program

A Lesson Yet to Be Learned

featuring Paul Rusesabagina, the real-life hero of Hotel Rwanda

Wednesday, March 6, 2019
7:00 p.m.

Theatre, Robin and Tim Wentworth Arts Building (Building 4)
MCC's Brighton Campus, 1000 East Henrietta Road, Rochester
Parking available in Lot F

Tickets: $5 with MCC ID; $10 general public
Tickets available at www.monroecctickets.com

Hotel Rwanda film showings scheduled on February 26 and 27 at MCC's Brighton and Downtown campuses, respectively.
Film showings are free and open to the public.

For more information, please visit www.monroecc.edu/go/holocaust.

Monroe Community College
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK