Project Censored The Movie: Ending the Reign of Junk Food News (2013)

Project Censored: The Movie explores media censorship in our society by exposing important stories that corporate media fails to report or underreports. Using the media watchdog group Project Censored as their road map, two fathers from California made a documentary film that will help to end the reign of "Junk Food News".

Hate Rising (2016)

Award-winning journalist Jorge Ramos gets rare, exclusive access to the Neo-Nazi, Ku Klux Klan and "Alt-Right" movements, whose hateful rhetoric against innocent Americans is on the rise in part because of the extraordinary 2016 election season.

Poetry of Resilience (2011)

Academy® Award nominated director Katja Esson's (Ferry Tales, Skydancer) exquisitely made film explores survival, strength and the power of the human heart, body and soul as expressed through poetry. She highlights six different poets who individually survived Hiroshima, the Holocaust, China's Cultural Revolution, the Kurdish Genocide in Iraq, the Rwandan Genocide, and the Iranian Revolution. By summoning the creative voice of poetry to tell stories of survival and witness, each reclaims humanity and dignity in the wake of some of history's most dehumanizing circumstances.
