The Story of the Buffalo Soldiers and the Tuskegee Airmen

Presented by Retired Rochester Police Officer and Army non-commissioned Officer Mr. Bing C. Reaves Sr., along with one of the original Tuskegee Airmen, Mr. Charles Price.

The Buffalo Soldiers were African American Soldiers given that name in the 1800s by the Plain Indians because they equated their skin, hair, and fighting abilities equal to the American Bison (aka Buffalo). "Tuskegee Airmen" refers to all who were involved in the so-called "Tuskegee Experience," the Army Air Corps program to train African-Americans to fly and maintain combat aircraft.
